18 July 2018, New York – Romance filled the air at the Philippine Consulate General in New York (PCGNY) as a lovely young couple, Rachelle Q. Mercado and Morris N. De Claro, recited their wedding vows and committed themselves to a life together as husband and wife.

The wedding ceremony took place at the Consulate on 18 July 2018, at around 11:30 a.m., with Vice Consul Tanya Faye O. Ramiro serving as solemnizing officer. Friends of the couple and cheering Consulate personnel were on hand to serve as witnesses to the milestone event.

To get married at PCGNY, both parties must be Filipino citizens, and have to appear personally to file their marriage application. For more information, please visit: <http://www.newyorkpcg.org/the-consulate/our-services/civil-registry/getting-married-at-the-consulate>. END
