20 May 2019, New York –Romance filled the air at the Philippine Consulate General in New York (PCGNY) as a lovely young couple, Kevin Dale G. Sardea, a physical therapist, and Lara Jane J. Gongob, a nurse, recited their wedding vows and committed themselves to a life together as husband and wife.

The wedding ceremony took place at the Consulate this morning, at around 11:30 a.m., with Vice Consul Tanya Faye O. Ramiro serving as solemnizing officer. An Aunt of the groom and cheering Consulate personnel were on hand to serve as witnesses to the milestone event.

To get married at PCGNY, both parties must be Filipino citizens, and have to appear personally to file their marriage application. For more information, please visit: <http://www.newyorkpcg.org/the-consulate/our-services/civil-registry/getting-married-at-the-consulate>. END
